

ONLY ONE YOU

Behaviour support & leadership to get the young people of your school independent, resilient and creating a future they want.

ONLY ONE YOU

WHO IS THIS PROGRAMME FOR?

Do you have students who need help with focus? With seeing the importance of working hard and making school work? Students who need to change their attitudes and behaviour?

Do you have staff who need help with getting the best out of young people? Do you need to revitalise your whole school approach to behaviour? Do you need intervention with a particular year team, department or your pastoral staff?

The Only One You coaching programme helps staff to raise student's aspirations and challenge negative attitudes and behaviours. Changes are made through a relational approach using solutions-focused dialogue and framed within the themes of potential, responsibility and relationships.

Mark Goodwin

Mark has 20 years experience as a teacher, school leader, trainer and coach.

Mark is the founder of Equal Parts Education a company that delivers a turn around programme for permanently excluded students across the Midlands, as well as working in partnership with schools and universities to deliver training and coaching to staff at all stages of their careers.

Mark's passion is still the classroom and he can be found most days teaching across all phases, in mainstream, alternative and special.

A vintage Corona typewriter is the central focus of the image, resting on a dark wooden surface. The typewriter is black with gold-colored accents, including the brand name 'CORONA' and 'FOUR' on the front. The keys are visible, and the paper carriage is partially visible on the left. The background is a dark, textured wood.

“Mark works with us as a Behaviour & Leadership Consultant. He brings strategic experience that has helped us to develop and deliver our Behaviour Policy as well as delivering staff training and coaching. He also works directly with some of our most disengaged students, in and out of the classroom and with some notable successes, to help them re-connect with school.”

MICHELLE CORRIGAN - ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL, FORTE ACADEMY, AMINGTON

“Mark’s work with our Associate Teachers has always been exceptional. His knowledge, experience and expertise shines through and our trainee teachers have always left his behaviour sessions feeling excited and positive about what they can achieve when working with children. His sessions have been informative, engaging and incredibly useful and are always based on the best available evidence complimented by Mark’s years of experience.”

RUTH ARGYLE - DEPUTY DIRECTOR, KEELE AND NORTH STAFFORDSHIRE TEACHER EDUCATION (KNSTE)

“We really value Mark’s work with the students of Reflective School Support. He readily engages with any of our students, of all ages, especially some of the most disengaged and disconnected young people, supporting them to wards a better relationship with school, education and themselves.”

DEBBIE BARNES - DIRECTOR, REFLECTIVE SCHOOL SUPPORT

“We only use teachers that have the skills and flexibility of approach to engage our learners. Mark’s work each week shows that he is more than capable of this and the outcomes he has achieved with our students are commendable. His ability to work tirelessly to quickly build positive relationships with our students has been merit worthy and has ensured his lessons are enjoyed and as a result, great learning takes place.”
